There is one vote per Group including the General Service Representatives of Institutional groups. If a District Committee Member is not present, the Alternate can vote in his/her place. If neither the D.C.M. nor the Alternate is present, the incoming District Committee Member may vote.

PART 3- AREA CONVENTION

HISTORY

At the November 7th, 1998 meeting of the Northeastern Ontario Area 84 Committee meeting, the Committee asked the then-existing Ad-Hoc Committee on Operating Procedures to extend its mandate and develop a set of guidelines especially geared to the do's and don'ts surrounding the Area Convention. The following document is the result of this work. Subject to amendments to be brought forth at the Area Assemblies, which have added or deleted items according to the wishes of the body at that time, these guidelines are intended to be used by each Area Convention Committee in the true spirit for which they are intended, which is: to fulfill our primary purpose while adhering to the principles and traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous.

The use of this document by District Committees in planning their respective events is not only permissible, but also desirable. In the event that there is any discrepancy between this document and the Northeastern Ontario Committee and/or Assembly Operating Procedures, the Operating Procedures will be deemed to be correct.

This document is commonly known as the Northeastern Ontario Area 84 Convention Procedures and Guidelines and throughout this document as Convention Procedures and/or Convention Guidelines.

PREFACE

A copy of the Convention Procedures and Guidelines is to be provided to the following for their use and to be passed on to the next officer at the end of his/her term:

- Area Chairperson.
- Area Convention Chairperson (each year as they are elected).
- A copy is expected to be made available to each member of the Area Convention Committee working with each Convention Chairperson.
- Delegate.
- Alternate Delegate.
- Treasurer.
- Area Special Services Chairpersons.
- District Committee Members.

The original and an up-to-date copy of the Convention Procedures is to be kept with the Area Secretary. These Convention Procedures must be on hand with the Area

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

Secretary at all Assemblies and Committee meetings for ready reference. They must also be on hand with the Area Convention Chairperson at the Area Convention.

It is permissible, and strongly recommended, for Districts to make copies for their Committees, but it would be advisable to contact the Area Secretary beforehand to ensure that the most up-to-date copy of the Convention Procedures is being distributed.

PURPOSE

The purpose of these Procedures and Guidelines is to provide for the continuing successful operation of the Northeastern Ontario Area 84 Convention. There can be no rules in A.A. other than those which we choose to impose on ourselves. These Procedures and Guidelines have set out what the Area Assembly has agreed upon, not what anyone has commanded it to do.

All provisions of the Procedures and Guidelines and all actions of the Area Committee ought to conform to the Principles of the Twelve Traditions and adhere strictly to the primary purpose of Alcoholics Anonymous: “TO CARRY THE MESSAGE TO THE ALCOHOLIC WHO STILL SUFFERS”.

SECTION I – GENERAL

Sub-section 12 – Name and Terminology

The Area Convention shall be known as the Northeastern Ontario Area 84 Convention, hereinafter called the Area Convention or Convention.

The Convention Committee Chairperson shall be known as the Northeastern Ontario Area 84 Convention Chairperson, hereinafter called the Convention Chairperson.

The Convention Committee shall be known as the Northeastern Ontario Area 84 Convention Committee, hereinafter called the Convention Committee.

The Procedures and Guidelines shall be known as the Northeastern Ontario Area 84 Convention Procedures and Guidelines, hereinafter referred to as “these Procedures”.

Sub-section 2 – Composition of the Convention Committee

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

The Convention Chairperson reports to and is accountable to the Area Committee. Please refer to the Northeastern Ontario Area 84 Committee Operating Procedures for information regarding the election of the Convention Chairperson.

The Convention Committee may be made up of as many members as the presiding Convention Chairperson feels is necessary to carry out the organization of a successful Area Convention. Traditionally, these committee members came from within the District hosting the Convention and were selected (either elected or appointed) under the guidance of the Convention Chairperson. All Convention Committee members are voting members of that Committee, except the presiding Chairperson, who may only vote in the event of a tie vote.

The Convention Committee shall have, at minimum, the following positions filled:

- Convention Chairperson
- Convention Secretary
- Convention Treasurer

The minimum responsibilities of these positions are summarized below. Also included are other “suggested” positions and responsibilities that we have found to be useful for a successful Area Convention.

Convention Chairperson:

- attend all Northeastern Ontario Committee meetings and Assemblies during his/her term;
- reports are to be submitted to the Area Committee and any direction provided by the Area Committee is to be transmitted to the Convention Committee;
- should attend all District Committee meetings in his/her District, in order to keep the hosting District informed and to obtain assistance that might be available/required;

Convention Chairperson is Responsible For:

- arranging and chairing all meetings of the Convention Committee;
- coordinating the work of the Convention Committee members and their sub-committees;
- acting as a signing officer for the expenses and/or outside contracts;
- having a contact list of past Convention Committee members of that District;
- reserving and booking the location of the next Area Convention in the current District. This will be three years in advance and during one of the first three weekends in October (please refer to the Northeastern Ontario Area 84 Committee Operating Procedures);

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

- returning all materials (minutes, recommendations, decorations etc.) as required, after the final Convention Committee meeting.

The normal and reasonable expenses of the Convention Committee will be covered, keeping in mind that the Convention Committee, as-a-whole, is responsible to the Area Committee. The Convention Committee Chairperson may book a room at the location of the Area Convention, so he/she can be available, at-all-times, during the weekend.

Convention Secretary is responsible for:

- keeping all written records of the Convention Committee actions, including minutes of all of the Convention Committee meetings;
- coordinating and retaining copies of all correspondence with outside agencies;
- appointing someone to be Acting Secretary for that meeting only in the event of an absence.

Convention Treasurer is responsible for:

- is responsible and accountable for the handling of all monies (income and expenses) for the Area Convention;

Is Responsible For:

- preparing a budget for the Area Convention for approval by the Convention Committee;
- paying all the bills, and as such, is a signing officer of the Convention Committee;
- ensuring that the Convention Committee has a bank account set up and that income resulting from the Convention be immediately deposited to this account;
- attending all Convention Committee meetings and submitting written reports regarding all income, expenses, cash status and cash flow (rate of income and expenses). If unable to attend a meeting is responsible for submitting a written report. The reports shall include copies of all bank statements since the previously submitted report. The original copies of these statements, along with original expense sheets and bills for the same period, must be available for review;
- the Treasurer may question and request explanation for any expenses submitted for payment, but it is not the Treasurer's responsibility to justify the expenses. This belongs to the person who incurred it.

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

- preparing the full final financial report for presentation to the Northeastern Ontario Area Committee, before the end of the calendar year of the Convention, along with the advance funds and any proceeds, from the Convention, to the Area Treasurer at the same time. If a deposit has been paid for the Convention location (3 years in advance), this may be deducted from returned advance funds and will be noted in the Area Treasurer's reports. The report shall include copies of all bank statements along with copies of expense sheets, and bills for the same period shall be available for review.

A Word about Signing Officers: It is suggested that there be at least two (2) signatures required for the withdrawal of funds from the bank account (these would normally be the Convention Chairperson and the Treasurer). It has been found advisable that another person on the Convention Committee also have signing authority, so that in the event one of the signing officers is not available, the payment of bills and other expenses need not be delayed.

Convention Co-Chairperson is responsible for:

- must be prepared to assume the responsibilities of the Convention Chairperson should the Chairperson be unable to complete the task;
- is expected to attend all Convention Committee meetings and be available to assist the Chairperson, as needed.

Program Chairperson is responsible for:

Registration Chairperson is responsible for:

- obtaining cost estimates for registration materials (name tags/badges) and with the Committee’s approval, obtaining the materials;
- keeping records of all registrations and all monies collected from registrations;
- ensuring that enough help is available in-order-to prevent line-ups and delays at the registration desk;
- arranging with the Treasurer for adequate cash float at the registration desk and passing all income to the Treasurer on a regular basis, retaining only a prudent amount of cash on hand at the door;
- enforcing purchase cut off dates.

Entertainment Chairperson is responsible for:

- preparing a budget, for Committee approval, for any anticipated expenses;
- obtaining estimates for various entertainment sources (D.J. for dance etc.) for Committee approval, and for booking the entertainment upon approval by the Committee;

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

Greeter Chairperson is responsible for:

- arranging for enough people to be available, during the entire weekend, to greet guests at all entrances to the Convention and panel areas;

Refreshment Chairperson is responsible for:

- preparing a budget for the provision of coffee, tea, pop or any other refreshments that will be available, and submitting it for Committee approval;

- securing a committee of “coffee makers” and “bartenders” to ensure that fresh coffee, supplies and any other refreshments are available at all posted locations for the duration of the Convention.

Hospitality Chairperson is responsible for:

- ensuring that designated “hospitality rooms” are open and that host/hostesses are available in the rooms to greet our guests, introduce them to others and to give directions;
- ensuring that there are sufficient refreshments (coffee, donuts etc.) available in these rooms when they are open.

Public Information Chairperson is responsible for:

- coordinating with the District Public Information Committee Chairperson and Grapevine Representative regarding the display and sale of Grapevine materials;

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

- arranging for the ordering of any additional literature, upon approval from the Convention Committee;
- ensuring that A.A. literature displays are tended-to, at all times, and that monies collected are forwarded to the appropriate people;
- ensuring that only AAWS and Grapevine Inc. literature is displayed.

Talk-a-thon Chairperson is responsible for:

- arranging ongoing meetings according to the approved program/schedule.

Other Positions that may be useful are:

- Clean-up Chairperson.
- Al-Anon Chairperson.
- Coffee/Refreshment Chairperson.
- Recording Chairperson (if issues around taping warrant a separate chairperson).

The description of these positions is to be used as guidelines only and can assist in creating a checklist of the details that are involved with a successful Area Convention.

From District to District, there are differences that can only be met when we ensure the autonomy of each Convention Committee, particularly when defining its own structure and the roles and responsibilities of its Committee members.

Sub-section 3 – Structure of the Convention:

The format of the Convention is up to the Convention Committee, but certain elements are typical of all our Conventions. These are:

- The Convention usually opens on a Friday afternoon and closes on Sunday afternoon.
- The host district can determine the length of the event be it one or more days.
- The Convention usually consists of a(n)
 - Opening Speaker event
 - Panels throughout the Convention
 - Banquet meal with Guest Speaker
 - Spiritual Speaker event
 - Dance and Entertainment
 - Talk-a-thon (or an on-going discussion meeting)
 - Sobriety Countdown

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

Sub-section 4 – Finances

The Northeastern Ontario Area Committee provides each Area Convention with an expense advance of $1,500.00, less any amount paid as a deposit, to secure the Convention venue. For example, if a $300.00 deposit was paid out to secure the Convention facility in Sault Ste Marie, the amount of the advance that would be available to the Convention Committee for that Convention would be $1,200.00.

All Area service committees are part of the Area structure and derive their funding from the overall budget rather than by separate independent means. Some groups will donate donuts, sandwiches etc., and take on some of the responsibilities of “hosting” in our hospitality rooms. Other groups will provide help in the way of donating a Big Book for the Sobriety Countdown, and other groups will provide literature or books “on consignment” to the Convention.

The Convention is expected to be fully self-supporting and should operate on a prudent zero-based budget meaning the Convention is not expected to make money. After the Convention, the expense advance (less any amount used as a deposit to secure the next Convention facility) is to be forwarded to the Area Treasurer, along with a detailed statement of income and expenses for the Convention. This is to be done before the end of the calendar year that the Convention is in so that the numbers can be included in the Area’s year-end statement.

Most years, the Convention finds that there is a surplus of funds (that the Convention “made” money). This surplus is to be forwarded, along with the return of the expense advance, to the Area Treasurer. This surplus is used by the Area to make up for shortfalls in the expected annual contributions from the groups throughout the Area.

Because of the nature of a zero-based budget balance with our Primary Purpose, prudence, experience and good judgement are the essential guides for a Convention that provides good value for the cost, at a cost that is affordable to many of us.

Sub-section 5 – This is not an A.A. Meeting!

The Area Convention is NOT an A.A. meeting. It is a Convention and has costs associated with it. It involves spending thousands of dollars.

There are costs for the Convention facilities, coffee, entertainment, banquet, guest speakers etc., right down to the name tag we wear. The Area does not underwrite these expenses, nor does the Area have a Convention fund. What can be done to ensure the Convention won't go deep into the red? These costs must be made up with the registration fees.

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

There are those that argue that people should not have to pay a registration fee in-order-to come and listen to panels – that these represent A.A. meetings and are therefore free. True, there are no dues or fees for A.A. membership, but we are also self-supporting, which means that we must cover our costs. Nowhere is it written that A.A. meetings are free – most meetings have cost that must be covered, and over a long period of time, these costs are usually balanced by our own contributions.

This is a one-time Convention. There is only one shot at recovering the expenses and even the hard-working Convention Committee members pay their registration fees.

A treatment centre may pay the registration fees for some of its clients to attend, a group may sponsor one of its members, a sponsor may cover the costs of a sponsee, and a small organization might pay to have their whole membership attend. The bottom line is that each person attending the Convention is expected to have his or her appropriate registration fees paid for. Otherwise, the Convention will be guilty of preferential treatment and may go into the red.

Admission to the Convention should be restricted to those whose registration fees have been paid. This includes any recorders and/or their staff. See Sub-section 11 – Special Invitations.

Sub-section 6 – Meetings of the Convention Committee

The Convention Committee typically starts holding meetings during October of the year prior to the Convention being planned. Meetings are then usually held on-a-monthly basis and often more frequently as the date of the Convention approaches. The actual schedule of meetings and the location of meetings is entirely the responsibility of, and at the discretion of, the Convention Committee.

Any expenses incurred for Convention Committee meetings (if rent must be paid) are the sole responsibility of the Convention Committee and must be reported by the Treasurer as part of the Convention expenses.

Historically, Convention Committees have found it beneficial to hold enough meetings that:

- a theme can usually be announced by the November Area Committee Meeting;

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

- flyers are available for distribution by the February Area Committee Meeting;
- tickets are available as soon as the flyers are distributed.

Again, these are only suggestions.

All members of the Convention Committee are expected to attend all meetings, which are chaired by the Convention Chairperson (see Section 2 for responsibilities). All members of A.A. are usually welcome to attend these meetings and have a voice. Voting privileges on any-and-all issues are limited to recognized Committee Members as described in Section 2. This voting privilege is extended to any Al-Anon Chairperson that the Convention Committee may choose to have as part of the Committee.

After the Convention is over (and the final financial statement is produced), a wrap-up meeting is usually beneficial to close things off. This is a good forum for doing an “inventory” of the Convention: what worked, what didn’t, and putting together suggestions for future Convention Committees. This should form a good part of the Convention Chairperson’s final report to the Area Committee.

Sub-section 7 – Al-Anon Participation

The Area recognizes the unique relationship between A.A. and Al-Anon. In accordance with our A.A. Guidelines (MG-04 Conferences, Conventions and Roundups), the Convention Committee usually invites Al-Anon to participate in the Convention.

In Northeastern Ontario, the Convention typically:

- invites Al-Anon to select one (and only one) of their members to sit on the Convention Committee as a contributing member of the Committee (the Al-Anon representative does not usually have a vote, but that is left to the conscience of the Convention Committee);
- permits Al-Anon to plan their own program;
- arranges for, and pays for, facilities for Al-Anon to host its own hospitality activities;
- provides scheduled times and facilities in the meeting rooms for Al-Anon panels.

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

Keeping in mind that, in accordance with our Twelve Traditions, a Convention can be either A.A. or Al-Anon – not both.

Al-Anon literature and/or posters are not to be displayed in the general meeting halls, registration area, or in the hallways designated as Convention areas. It is permitted in rooms reserved for the exclusive use of Al-Anon and in any hallway or area not designated as an exclusive Convention area.

Income from registration is not shared with Al-Anon.

Sub-section 8 – Taping/Recording

Although recording is considered-to-be an important means by which we can carry the message, it is not the purpose of the Convention.

The approach used for recording at Area Conventions closely follows the suggestions in our own A.A. Guidelines (MG – 04 Conferences, Conventions and Roundups) which each Committee member is encouraged to read. Without reproducing them, some of the interpretations we have found useful are:

- the recorder(s) is (are) selected by the Convention Committee, based on the recorder(s) experience, reputation and knowledge of A.A. Traditions;
- a release form, on which speakers either agree or decline to be recorded, should be retained by the Convention Committee;
- if any speaker, and indeed, any A.A. member wishes their contribution or message NOT to be recorded, these wishes MUST be respected;
- the Convention Committee clarifies to both the recorder and the Convention that recording is NOT an official part of the Convention. Keeping the Convention on schedule is the responsibility of the Master of Ceremonies. Start times for any event should not be determined by the readiness of the recorder and/or the recording equipment;
- whatever arrangements made between the Convention Committee and the recorder(s) clearly describes how any recording is to be carried out and exactly where the recorder(s) is (are) permitted to sell recordings on-site;
- the arrangement or agreement with recorders should declare that the Convention Committee collects no fees or royalties from recording at the Convention. Recorders that are permitted at the Convention must be registered (pay registration fees) and all

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

recorders are responsible for all of their expenses during the Convention. No guarantees are made or implied (although highly unlikely, ALL speakers and participants may decline recording which would leave little to record);

- because of the potentially profitability of recordings for the individual recorders, ANY announcement regarding the availability of recordings (what, when, where etc.) is strongly discouraged;
- any arrangement or agreement with recorders should clearly state that any of the permissions provided to recorders are privileges only, not rights or legal obligations.
- video recording is not permitted at the Northeastern Ontario Convention;
- in keeping with our anonymity traditions, recordings must not be labeled with any speaker's full name, nor used in any catalogs. Speakers are encouraged not to use full names or identify any third party by name in their talks.

Sub-section 9 – Displays

Displays are an effective way to pass along important A.A. information. It is expected that displays of A.A. Convention Approved literature and Grapevine materials will be found at the Northeastern Ontario Convention.

It is the responsibility of the Convention Committee to invite the Grapevine Chairpersons to the Convention to display their materials. It is also the responsibility of the Convention Committee to provide appropriate and adequate space for these displays.

It is the responsibility of the Grapevine Chairperson to correspond with the Convention Committee, specifically identifying any special needs. In turn, the Convention Committee is responsible for responding to the Chairpersons regarding the arrangements that have been made and of any special needs or requests that have not been met. This is essential in-order-to avoid any logistical problems or surprises at the Convention.

During the Convention, it is the responsibility of the Area Grapevine Chairperson to ensure that the display is properly “manned” and kept safe and secure.

In accordance with the Area Operating Procedures, the reasonable expenses to ensure that these displays are available at the Convention will not be covered by the Area itself.

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

For literature displays, it is usually beneficial to work out an arrangement with the Area Grapevine Chairperson to display literature alongside the Grapevine material. The responsibility of “manning” the displays can be shared, if desired.

Typically, groups from the host District of the Convention will contribute literature for display purposes.

Materials such as books, recordings etc. are often provided on consignment to the Convention Committee. Monies collected for items sold and materials not sold are returned to each specific group after the Convention.

It is suggested that A.A. approved pamphlets be available at no charge and that other materials such as books, recordings and Grapevine material be available at cost.

Sub-section 10 – Advertising the Event

The Area Convention is an open event, available for anyone to attend. In the spirit of our Traditions, particularly those of “personal anonymity”, “attraction rather than promotion” and “... not affiliated with ...”, ticket or registration sales should NOT be advertised or posted except as might be possible through public service forums.

Posting the event through any of the public service facilities available, as a Public Service Announcement (PSA), IS acceptable. Such announcements do not have to be restricted to the local of the Convention. The announcements can be sent to any public service provider, anywhere, that is willing to publish them.

Certainly, the A.A. Grapevine and Box 459 will post the event if the information is sent to them on time. This is a great way to let our anonymous friends know about the Convention. Full names of the members should not be used on any flyers or other informational information.

When listing phone numbers as contacts, only telephone numbers of consenting A.A. members should be used. Telephone numbers of clubs, organizations or other institutions are NOT to be used on any flyer or ticket.

If an A.A. member (or for that matter, anyone at all) wishes to tell a friend or someone else about the Convention and encourage them to attend, is their prerogative.

Anybody that the Convention Committee provides tickets to, for the purpose of sale, is free to sell the tickets to anybody. It is, however, suggested that we not lose sight of our Traditions or Principles when dealing with non-alcoholic contacts.

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

Sub-section 11 – Special Invitations

Again, the Area Convention is an open event, available for anyone to attend. This is our celebration.

At times. It will seem appropriate to invite people such as the mayor, or a city counselor. Perhaps someone in the medical profession, the clergy, from a treatment centre, literally from anywhere. They need not be alcoholic.

Whatever the circumstances, the Convention Committee has the right to invite whomever they wish. Of course, the common sense of the group's conscience will dictate what will be prudent and appropriate, and the Convention Committee will continue to safeguard the anonymity of our members.

Since all expenses and all revenues must be accounted for, the Convention Committee's responsibility lies with the accountability to the Area, as-a-whole, for the costs associated with guests it invites.

Similarly, if you as an A.A. member wish to invite a guest and are responsible for the cost of their registration, you are free to do so. You are accountable for the costs.

Sub-section 12 – Outside Issues

Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues. But they do influence us and oftentimes they represent "the things we cannot change". For the Area Convention, the Convention Committee has the final responsibility for finding the balance.

Sub-section 12.1 – Vendors

Conventions attract vendors, peddlers, whatever we wish to call them; they come with their wares of A.A. or "program" paraphernalia, along with whatever might satisfy our spiritual needs. This is their business, their trade, and their means of income. But they are also outside issues.

Whatever business they conduct in the confines of their own hotel rooms, their own rented space within the hotel or parking lot, or whatever arrangements they might have made with management of the Convention facility, is not ours to either condone or condemn.

Northeastern Ontario Area 84
PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION
Operating Procedures & Guidelines

However, vendor literature and/or posters are not permitted to be displayed in the general meeting halls, registration area, hospitality rooms or hallways designated as exclusive Convention areas. They are permitted in rooms reserved for the exclusive use of such vendors and in any hallway or area not designated as an exclusive Convention area.

Sub-section 13 – A Sample A.A. Panel Format and Panel Suggestions

The following is a sample A.A. panel format that has been used with success. Following it are some suggestions that, based upon our experience, might be useful.

Master of Ceremonies

- makes any general announcements;
- reads the Anonymity Statement;
- introduces the Panel Chairperson.

then the Panel Chairperson

- introduces him/herself and may briefly qualify;
- opens the panel with a moment of silence, followed by the Serenity Prayer;
- reads the Preamble of Alcoholics Anonymous;
- has someone read the Twelve Steps of A.A.;
- has someone read the Twelve Traditions of A.A.;
- announces the panel topic or theme;
- introduces the Speakers.

then each speaker speaks in turn

- keeps in mind any time limit for the panel and considers other speakers.

then the Panel Chairperson

- has someone thank the speakers;
- has the Master of Ceremonies come up to make any announcements.

then the Master of Ceremonies

- makes any announcements.

then the Panel Chairperson

- closes the panel with the Lord's Prayer.

The prudent number of speakers that are on any panel will depend on how much time is allotted for the panel, as well as some things we can't control, like speaker's own experience, strength and hope.

For a 1-hour panel, 2 speakers might be just the right number. It has been our experience that no one has ever been criticized for speaking for a short period of time.

PART 3 – AREA CONVENTION

Operating Procedures & Guidelines

However, regardless of how good the message is, a long talk is remembered for how long it took. At Conventions, panels are the same. The ones that run within the allotted time, are remembered for the message, not the time it took.

Like chairing an A.A. meeting, the Panel Chairperson is in charge of the panel and how long it runs. If help is required, ask for it. Having someone standing at the back of the room, waving frantically in the air when time is running on, is one way to keep things on track.

Having the Master of Ceremonies come up to make announcements before the final closing of the panel, by the Panel Chairperson, has the benefit of having announcements that can be heard. Right after a panel closes, there is usually too much noise and clamor for the Master of Ceremonies (or anyone else) to be heard.

Sub-section 14 - The Anonymity Statement

The A.A. Anonymity Statement reads:

There may be some here who are not familiar with our Tradition of personal anonymity at the public level:

“OUR PUBLIC RELATIONS POLICY IS BASED ON ATTRACTION RATHER THAN PROMOTION; WE NEED ALWAYS MAINTAIN PERSONAL ANONYMITY AT THE LEVEL OF PRESS, RADIO, TELEVISION AND FILMS”.

Thus we respectfully ask that no A.A. speaker, or indeed and A.A. member be identified by full name in published or broadcast reports of our meetings. The assurance of anonymity is essential in our efforts to help other problem drinkers who may wish to share our recovery program with us. And our Tradition of anonymity reminds us that A.A. principles come before personalities.
